These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding estimates, forecasts of other financial and performance metrics, projections of market opportunity and other characterisations of future events or circumstances, including any underlying assumptions. Forward-looking statements, financial projections and financial targets are based on the opinions and estimates of management at the date the statements are made and are subject to a variety of known and unknown risks and uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements, financial projections and financial targets. Readers should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, financial projections or financial targets contained in this announcement.

While in some cases presented with numerical specificity, by their nature, forward-looking statements, financial projections and financial targets involve numerous assumptions, known and unknown risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, that contribute to the possibility that the predictions, forecasts, projections and other forward-looking information will not occur, which may cause the Allwyn Group’s actual performance and financial results in future periods to differ materially from any estimates or projections or targets of future performance or results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements, financial projections and financial targets. Many actual events and circumstances are beyond the control of the Allwyn Group. There may be additional risks that the Allwyn Group presently does not know, or that the Allwyn Group currently believes are immaterial, that could also cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements. Any financial targets reflect the Allwyn Group’s subjective judgements in many respects and thus are susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business, economic, financial and other developments. Accordingly, such assumptions may change or may not materialise at all. Any forward-looking statements, financial projections and financial targets contained in this announcement are expressly qualified by this cautionary statement. While the Allwyn Group may elect to update these forward-looking statements at some point in the future, except as required by applicable law, the Allwyn Group specifically disclaims any obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, after the date on which the statements are made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. None of the Allwyn Group or any of its affiliates, advisers, officers, directors or representatives can give any assurance that any financial targets will be realised or that actual results will not vary significantly from the financial targets. While all financial, operational, industry and market projections, estimates and targets are necessarily speculative, the Allwyn Group believes that the preparation of prospective financial, operational, industry and market information involves increasingly higher levels of uncertainty the further out the projection, estimate or target extends from the date of preparation. Actual results will differ, and may differ materially, from the results contemplated by the projected financial, operational, industry and market information contained in this announcement, and the inclusion of such information in this announcement should not be regarded as a representation by any person that the results reflected in such projections will be achieved.
